SURVIVE AN AUDIT: PRACTICAL APPROACHES TO DOCUMENTATION

Clinical documentation is important for providing quality care, maintaining compliance, and protecting both clients and providers. This training session will provide behavioral health professionals with key insights into documentation expectations and considerations from an oversight perspective as well as practical approaches to improve documentation practices. The session will conclude with a Q&A with speakers ready to engage with common questions, challenges, and strategies for navigating the documentation process with confidence.

CONTINUING EDUCATION

An application has been made for continuing education credits for psychologists and Nebraska LMHP/LIMHPs. Credits will be awarded to participants who attend the entire training.
